travel to California from Tuesday, November 24, 2015, through Saturday, November 28, 2015.

Mr. Hammond's hope and intention is to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with family in California. One of the family members he will be visiting is ailing, and, thus, it is important to the Hammonds that they visit before Mr. Hammond reports to prison.

Per this Court's order in Mr. Hammond's judgment, Mr. Hammond is scheduled to surrender to the Bureau of Prisons on January 4, 2016. Counsel has confirmed that currently, Mr. Hammond is not under the supervision of either the United States Probation Office or the United States Pretrial Services Office. Mr. Hammond has been supervised by both of those offices at various times over the past several years without incident. He previously self-surrendered as ordered. He has always appeared as required at any scheduled court appearance.

On November 20, 2015, counsel for Mr. Hammond was in contact with counsel for the government, Assistant United States Attorney Frank Papagni. Mr. Papagni authorized counsel to advise the Court that the government joins in defendant's motion and requests that the Court grant Mr. Hammond permission to make this trip.

Dated this 23rd day of November, 2015.

Respectfully submitted,
